

HOT FIGHT OPENS OVER ZIEGLER

Missourians Seeking Extradition of the Millionaire Clash with New York Lawyers at Hearing Before the Governor.

ODELL SUPPORTS AN OBJECTION TO PAPERS.

Dates Lacking in Documents Charging Offense, and Claim Made that the Accused Was Never in Place Specified.

ALBANY, Dec. 7.—The regulation of Gov. Dockery, of Missouri, upon Gov. Odell for the extradition to that State of William M. Ziegler, of New York City, upon an indictment in Cole County, Mo., on the charge of furnishing funds for the bribery of Missouri legislators in connection with banking powder legislation, was the subject of a hearing before the Governor to-day.

Gov. Odell spoke up for Mr. Ziegler when objection was made to the fact that no date was named in the extradition papers. The Governor said he regarded this as a defect and he would probably not grant the extradition on such a document.

The Missouri authorities were represented by Attorney-General Crow and Judge T. B. Harvey, of Missouri, and Sheriff Smith, of Cole County. Mr. Ziegler was present in person, and his counsel, John M. Bowers, De Lancey Nicol, Edward Lauterbach, William J. Underwood and John D. Lindsey.

Mr. Bowers first demanded to know upon what dates the Missouri authorities alleged Mr. Ziegler was in the State of Missouri and committing the alleged crime.

"Upon bank dates in March, 1901," replied Attorney-General Crow.

There followed a spicy wrangle between Mr. Bowers and Mr. Crow, which Gov. Odell interrupted, saying: "Come, now, gentlemen, let us come down to the meat of the matter. It seems to me now," the Governor continued, "that the papers in this case are not regular in that they do not allege the date when the defendant was in the State of Missouri committing this crime."

"I think that if the defendant was not in the State of Missouri at the time of the committing of this crime then it is my duty to demand him. A very bad precedent might be established by permitting a citizen to be taken from this State on an insufficient basis of fact."

Mr. Crow maintained that if the acts and contents of the State of Missouri were taken to be the basis of fact, but were to be disregarded, the burden of proof was upon those attacking them.

"It appears to me," said Gov. Odell, "that if any crime was committed it was in the preventing by bribery the passage of this legislation."

"Certainly," cried Mr. Bowers, "and that suits them up to the date of March 15."

Mr. Bowers then read the affidavit of District Attorney Brown, of Cole County, asserting that Dr. Ziegler was in that county in March, 1901.

"We propose to show," said Mr. Bowers, "that Mr. Ziegler never was in that county in his life, and the swearing out of this warrant was an atrocious crime against the liberty of a citizen; an attempt to use the sovereign power of two States to bring this man into the State of Missouri, where they can try him on any charge they please."

Attorney-General Crow then arose and repelled indignantly what he called an attack to a sovereign State by a chief executive and his prosecuting officers.

"I do not know the gentleman who makes this proposition to me," said Gov. Odell, "but I do know that if he is not a citizen of my State and to myself to declare his statement as false."

WOOD PUSHED IN BY ROOSEVELT

President Hits at Senators and Makes the Promotion of the Army Officer a Recess Appointment on Legal Advice.

PAYMASTER TO MAKE TEST CASE TO CLINCH THE MOVE.

Others Named with the New Major-General Will Take Rank and Receive Pay—Dr. Crum Case Included.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—President Roosevelt to-day sent to the Senate the nomination of Gen. Leonard Wood to be a major-general of the army, and the nominations of 167 other army officers whose promotion is dependent on that of Gen. Wood. Accompanying these nominations were those of about twenty-five civilian appointees, including that of Dr. W. H. Crum, to be Collector of the Port of Charleston, S. C., and some others whom the President nominated in the last recess.

The appointments are considered by the President and his advisers to be recess appointments. The question of their status has been discussed thoroughly by the President with the best lawyers connected with the administration and in Congress.

The conclusion has been reached that between the time of the falling of President pro tempore Frye's gavel signifying the conclusion of the extraordinary session and the calling to order of the Senate in the regular session of Congress an appreciable lapse of time occurred.

In this time the appointments technically were made, they are regarded by the administration as recess appointments and the appointees therefore will receive the pay and exercise all the authority of the rank to which they are promoted.

The commissions of the army officers have been made out on this understanding. All of them are dated back to the time last summer when the appointments originally were made.

Secretaries Root and Moody had a conference with the President to-day before the appointments were sent to the Senate. In the matter of the appointments, their views as lawyers and as members of the administration, coincided with that of the President.

With a view to securing a legal decision, however, Secretary Root has authorized the Paymaster-General to make a test case and bring it to the attention of the controller of the treasury at the earliest possible moment.

WIFE BEATER IS HELD.

Gaffney Threatens in Court to Snapping and snarling like a mad dog and heaping abuse upon the head of the wife he has treated with inhuman savagery for years, Edward Gaffney was dragged from Magistrate O'Reilly's courtroom in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day, to a cell, where he will await the action of the Grand Jury, which will be called upon to indict him as a habitual criminal.

As he went to the prison pen Gaffney struggled with his guard, and, turning on his wife, shouted so that the whole courtroom could hear: "I'll kill you when I get out—"

Now please let that sink deep. It's true. We give you a dollar off.

It's done by using cash when and where it will do the most good in hammering the cost.

It's done by buying leather right—at the right time.

It's done by getting the factory work put through when some big factory has run into a dull spot in the business year,—which they all do. We supply all the thinking, all the material, all the specifications, all the lasts and patterns—all but the machinery and labor. We pay for exactly what we get,—and we get it mighty close to cost.

Wear, fit, style,—emphasize whichever one point you like, you'll get all three in the "Dollar-Off Shoe."

ACCUSES MAN AND WIFE.

Rosenstein Says They Robbed Him of Watch and Money.

Dennis and Bertha Callahan, a middle-aged couple of No. 400 South Fifth street, Brooklyn, were arrested to-day by Detective De Candliden, of the Bedford avenue station, on complaint of Samuel Rosenstein, of No. 42 Metropolitan avenue, who alleges that he was held up and robbed of a watch and chain worth $100 and $100 in money by a man and woman in an alley which runs back of No. 400 South Fifth street.

The Callahans were searched by the police, as were their premises, and not a shred of evidence to connect them with the reported crime was discovered.

AMERICANS AT THE VATICAN.

ROME, Dec. 7.—So as not to interfere with the celebration of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception at the Vatican and American College to-morrow, the Pope to-day received the members of that college. They were presented by the rector, Mr. Kennedy, and the vice-rector, Rev. W. G. Murphy.

The Wanamaker Store

Christmas things dominate the store, and rightly; for in them lies broadest public interest. But there is splendid economy news as well, that demands an audience by its overwhelming appeal to thrift, as well as practical Christmas generosity.

An Addition to the Dollar Doll Family

Twenty-four inches tall, and a perfect charmer, too, with pretty bisque head, real curly flaxen wig, and closing eyes. Many a little girl will exclaim with delight on Christmas morning, to find one of these beauties among her gifts.

Another $1 doll, the Baby Blanche, 21 1/2 inches tall, has the finest bisque head that's made—the "S. & H. 1079." You can find this stamp on the back of the head, underneath the wig. Our new arrival has the next best quality head—the "A. M."—that's the reason we can offer a larger doll at the same price.

Other Dolls, in a fascinating array, at 50c to $5.50. Basement.

Waist and Dress Patterns for Holiday Giving

Judging from experience, and allowing for the natural increment, we shall sell over 30,000 of these waist and dress-patterns between now and Christmas. In fact, considering our preparations, we shall be disappointed if we don't.

We began planning months ago—took whole surplus stocks from manufacturers, at savings of a third to a half, in many cases. Added other lines, at the lowest possible regular selling prices. So that today you can choose a waist or dress-pattern, neatly boxed or banded for giving, from a practically unlimited field; and half the time save that same third or half in so doing. More particulars:

Waist-Patterns of Mercerized Vestings

Neatly boxed; containing three sizes of 27-inch material, at 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.25 and $2.55. Over one hundred different varieties, in fancy weaves of white with colored figures, or stripes in contrast or all-white self-figures.

Boxed Dress Patterns

At $3.50—Eight yards of All-wool Cheviot, Serge or Mixed Suiting, with braid for trimming.
At $4—Seven yards of All-wool Serge, with braid for trimming.
At $4.50—Eight yards of All-wool Granite or Cheviot, with braid for trimming.
At $5.00—Seven yards of All-wool Granite, with braid for trimming, or eight yards of All-wool Granite, with novelty silk; or Novelty Fanne Velvet.
At $5.50—Seven yards of All-wool Granite, Homburg, or Surah Serge, with either fancy silk or panne velvet.

Banded Dress Patterns

Containing 6 to 8 yards, according to width of material, at $3 to $5 a pattern. Including chevrons, granites, serges, cloths, mixed chevrons, sabelines, homespun, novelty sabelines, whorls, volles, mists, mohairs, collenies and henriettes, in popular colorings.

Black Dress Patterns

Neatly banded, at $3 to $8 a pattern.

Cotton Dress Patterns

Neatly banded, or tied with colored tape. In advance styles for spring, 1904; but delivered early for holiday giving. 10-yard Dress Patterns of percales, at $1.25; fancy gingham, at $1; fancy seersucker, at $1.10. Rotunda and Fourth avenue.

A Good Piece of Silk News

Silks for a handsome waist, for yourself, or to fold in one of our neat Christmas boxes, if you want to send it as a gift—attractive dollar silks, at 65c a yard.

They are bright Louisines, in white, ivory, cream, two shades of light blue, pink, gray, two shades of navy blue, lilac, and black. 65c, instead of $1. Rotunda.

Boys' Clothing

That We're Proud of

First, these Double-breasted Suits at Five Dollars. You'll not find their equal elsewhere at that price. Note the excellence of the fabrics—and remember that they are absolutely all-wool. Note the tailoring, and remember that every seam is double sewed with silk thread. Then see the double thickness of cloth on seat and knees. They are suits for the sturdy boys, of 8 to 16 years, and they look well all the time, $5 a suit.

Norfolk Suits same way—made of selected blue chevrons—dressy and warm, though not too heavy in weight. Sizes for 8 to 16 years. $5 a suit.

Then the Oxford frieze Top Coats, for boys of 6 to 16 years—you can't match them anywhere at the price—$5.

Bring the boy in, and try them. Second Floor, Ninth street.

Shoes and Santa Claus

A contradiction? Not at all. The Shoe Store is full of Christmas cheer. Slippers, for one thing—think how many pairs are down on shopping lists today! And a dollar buys any one of half a dozen pretty sorts for men, women or children.

Other footgear, too, that won't come amiss as gifts:

Hockey Shoes for men or women; the real skating shoes, at $4.

Campus Boots for the college boy; tan; high cut, to tuck the trousers into, $7.

Women's Slippers, patent leather in various styles, $2 to $6.

Rubber Boots in all sizes.

Pretty little Shoes for the baby, $5c to $1.50. Fourth ave.
